Business Overview

This established Townsville business presents an excellent opportunity for owner-operators, investors or industry buyers seeking a well-positioned Queensland business with existing customer demand and future growth potential.

Located in one of North Queensland's major commercial centres, the business benefits from strong local economic activity, ongoing infrastructure investment and a growing regional population.

The business has developed a recognised local presence and offers buyers the opportunity to step into an operational business with existing systems, supplier relationships and repeat customer opportunities already in place.

Why Buyers Are Looking at Townsville

Townsville continues to attract business buyers due to its:

- expanding regional economy
- strong defence and infrastructure investment
- growing population base
- tourism and trade connections
- lifestyle appeal for owner operators

Businesses positioned within the Townsville region can benefit from both local demand and broader North Queensland commercial activity.

Potential Growth Opportunities

Depending on buyer strategy, opportunities may include:

- expanding digital marketing
- extending trading hours
- increasing local partnerships

- introducing additional service offerings
- strengthening online lead generation
- improving operational efficiencies
