

Noosa Heads

SOLD Holiday Accommodation

This dynamic, boutique property management business is available for sale for the first time and represents an amazing opportunity to enter the holiday rental space in the beautiful Noosa region.

Since its inception in 2017, this business has established its niche and grown year on year, servicing a range of prestigious properties in the short-term holiday accommodation market.

Working out of an office in a convenient location, the business operates with an experienced team and boasts a solid portfolio of clients.

The business offers a very personalised service, ensuring properties are well-presented, marketed with professional photos, and cleaned to a high standard. House guests are also welcomed personally, where requested, in addition to assisting with restaurant bookings and guidance on the features of the accommodation.

Key features & benefits:

· Opportunity either for a new entrant to the market or an existing property management business to take on an existing client base and grow further

· Multiple additional income streams with property repairs and stocking of consumable goods in accommodation

· Use of various accommodation booking websites

· Enjoy the amazing Sunshine Coast lifestyle
