

SOLD Established Steel and Aluminium Fabrication

This is an exceptional opportunity to acquire a highly reputable and long-standing steel and aluminium fabrication business with over 30 years of successful operation in the Mackay and Bowen Basin areas.

This business specialises in a comprehensive range of fabrication services, including on-site MIG and TIG welding, catering to both domestic and commercial clients. Their expertise extends to manufacturing high-quality stainless steel handrails and balustrades for homes, and a wide variety of commercial applications for the building, marine, and agricultural industries.

With a well-equipped workshop featuring a brake press and guillotine, and staffed by experienced and highly skilled personnel, the business is capable of designing and fabricating custom-made steel, stainless steel, and aluminium components to meet diverse client needs.

This is a chance to take over a thriving business with a solid foundation, a strong local reputation, and significant potential for continued growth in the active Mackay and Bowen Basin markets.
