

Noosa Heads

Established Door & Security Screen Business

What a time to be operating in this sector!

The Sunshine Coast's relentless population and construction boom is fuelling demand for quality door and security screen solutions. This well-established Noosaville business is perfectly positioned to capitalise on every new build and renovation project that comes with it.

With over two decades of trading, this business has built an outstanding local reputation across both residential and commercial markets.

Operated from a prime industrial precinct location with a professional showroom and fully equipped workshop, it offers buyers a genuine turnkey operation with experienced staff, strong supplier relationships, and loyal repeat clientele already in place.

Consistent revenue, solid margins, and a real pathway to growth through expanded digital presence and complementary product lines make this an opportunity that will appeal equally to a hands-on owner-operator, a tradie looking to take the next step, or a savvy investor wanting strong returns from a proven business in a high-growth coastal market.

Profitable, proven, and with its best days clearly ahead, this one deserves your attention.
